

FREEDOM VILLAGE GATHERING

WE CALL IT FREEDOM VILLAGE

BLACK PLACE-MAKING WITH FACILITANTS:

ROBERTA ROGERS

FAYE DANT

GWEN MOORE

BASMIN

Sunday, October 15

2pm-4pm

Thompson's Event Venue

7917 State St, East St Louis, IL
62203

Freedom Village Gathering will be an insightful conversation with Faye Dant, Roberta Rogers, and Gwen Moore on black place-making in our communities along the Mississippi River, including Mill Creek Valley, MO., Hannibal, MO., and Brooklyn, IL. Speakers cross land and generations, sharing their valued lived experiences, historical references, and future visions. Performance Artist Basmin will hold space for Honoring the Water. Afterwards, a Sunday Meal will be shared.

Faye Dant

Jim's Journey: Huck Finn Freedom Center Hannibal, MO.

Roberta Rogers

Historical Society of Brooklyn, IL.

Gwen Moore

Missouri History Museum, MO.

Basmin

Performance Artist

Greetings

Conversation+Questions with

Faye Dant, Gwen Moore, Roberta Rogers

Performance Artist Basmin Honors the Water

Sunday Meal

Resources and shared knowledge

- historicalsocietyofbrooklynil.com

- jimsjourney.org

- mississippiriver.school

Brooklyn

Jim's Journey

Mississippi River
Open School

Thank you

Roberta Rogers

Faye Dant

Gwen Moore

Basmin

Alicia Ajayi

Members from Middle Waters Field School Crossings

Spillway-Art Of The Rural

Thompson's Event Venue-Catering

Listeners and Supporters

All who are preserving and sharing the history of Freedom Villages and Cultural Legacies.

Middle Waters Field School

Alicia Ajayi	Saundi Kloeckener
Allena Brazier	Lynn Peemoeller
Dail Chambers	Samantha Pounders
Jennifer Colten	Roberta Rogers
Basmin Daughter of All Relations	Quinton Ward
Matt Fluharty	Jesse Vogler
Joni Gordon

The logo is a circular emblem with a light blue border. Inside the circle, the text "Middle Waters" is at the top in a small, dark font. Below it, "FIELD SCHOOL" is written in a larger, bold, dark font with a horizontal line underneath. At the bottom, "Crossings" is written in a bold, orange font. A stylized blue wave graphic is positioned at the very bottom of the circle.

Middle Waters
FIELD SCHOOL
Crossings